Is God
WISE and JUST?

The image features a central rectangular sign with a dark, possibly black, frame. The sign has a light-colored, textured background. The text is centered and reads "Is God WISE and JUST?". "WISE" and "JUST?" are in a large, bold, serif font with a hatched texture, while "Is God" and "and" are in a smaller, plain serif font. To the left of the sign is a portion of a decorative, ornate frame with intricate scrollwork. To the right is a vertical wooden post with a rough, natural texture, and a white, textured material is visible behind it. At the bottom center of the sign, there is a small, dark, rectangular object that looks like a shadow or a small block.

Analogy

How do we maintain a relationship when things are falling apart in life ?

A wise gardener prepares the soil before he plants the seed.

- One who prays must prepare his mind to receive that which he plants in the form of a prayer.
- “He must weed out from the soil of his mind the wrong chemical elements of fear and doubt and other disturbing emotions, then energize this mental soil with desire and fertilize it with faith, in order to provide the conditions upon which God can act and help bring what is prayed for into material manifestation. Since you have been created as a creature of free will and free choice, it is up to you to decide and then to ask, in accordance with God's law: "Ask and it shall be given unto you." But you must first ask—and you must know not only how to ask, but what to ask for, in order to receive the right answer to prayer.”- Harold Sherman

So how do we maintain this relationship with God ?

Trust God

A person wearing a patterned jacket and a red hat is walking away from the viewer on a narrow dirt path in a canyon. They are carrying a long wooden bridge across a chasm. The scene is hazy and lit with a warm, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The canyon walls are dark and textured.
